THE PITCH

Executive Summary

- What are you specializing in what do you do for customers (be specific).
- “Our special sauce gives us a unique advantage that will capture ??% of this $???M market.”
- “We will be looking for $??M to build an enabling function that will generate $??M over the next XX months.”
- <20% of presenters do this well

What's the Problem?

- Describe the business problem you are looking to address in simple, clear concise terms
- Current state, seriousness of problem
- Desired future state, benefit to customer
- Scale of the initial market
- No more than 6 bullets
- Graphics better than words
- < 10% of presenters do this well

What's Your Solution?

- Describe your business solution in simple, clear, concise terms.
- Key benefits, features
- Product roadmap
- No more than 6 bullets
- Graphics better than words
- >70% of presenters do this well

What's the Business Model?

- Explain how you are going to make money – clear, concise
  - If you can't describe your business model in 20 words or less, you probably don't have a workable model.
- What's the value to the customer?
  - Customer Value =(Seriousness of Current State + Benefits of the Desired Future State) minus Cost of the Solution
- < 10% of presenters to this well

What's Your “Special Sauce”?

- What's the proprietary, underlying “magic” that gives you a clear, defensible advantage?
- Patents on their own are rarely sufficient
- What are you going to do particularly well that it will be difficult to copy?
- Graphics are better than words
- <30% of presenters do this well

Go-to-Market Strategy

- Describe your Marketing & Sales strategies in simple, clear, concise terms.
- Sales cycle & strategy for initial market
- How will you acquire your first customer, your next 3, the next 5? What is the cost of acquiring a customer?
- No more than 6 bullets
- Graphics are better than words (not like THIS slide!)
- < 50% of presenters do this well

Competition

- There is ALWAYS competition – even if it's the way it's done now.
- Provide a Competitive Analysis
  - a table/chart comparing your solution to the current approach and major competitors, by key benefit
- The more realistic you are, the more believable your case
- < 30% of presenters do this well

Who's on the Team?

- Management Team
  - Why is this the Right Team?
  - relevant information only - shorter is better
  - include relevant company names & positions
  - include independent Directors, if relevant
- Identify holes that will need to be filled
- < 10% of presenters do this well

Financial Projections

- P & L

- By Quarter for first year, annually thereafter, 3 years out.

	Past Year	Q1	Q2	Q3	Q4	TOT	2 nd Year	3 rd Year
Revenue
COGS (Cost of Goods Sold)
R&D
S&M (Sales & Marketing)
G&A (General & Administrative)
EBIT (Earnings before interest and taxes - aka operating earnings)
Cash Flow

- Assumptions are more important than numbers – be prepared to explain them.
- < 10% of presenters do this well

Status & Timeline

- Major Milestones, what's been achieved to date, Current Status, what still needs to be done & how long it's going to take.
- Include expected liquidity event. (Exit Strategy)
- <30% of presenters do this well

Other Stuff

- Rehearse your presentation until you are comfortable delivering it smoothly and in the time allotted.
- Do not “wing it” – you’ll only embarrass yourself.
- Multiple presenters is always nice if both are well schooled on the presentation and can deliver it with clarity and enthusiasm.
- Be genuinely enthusiastic about your idea. It’s the best one out there, right?
